How to Register for CA Foundation Jan 2027

1. Log in to the ICAI eServices portal.
2. Select the Foundation January 2027 examination.
3. Fill in your details, exam medium (English or Hindi) and exam city.
4. Pay the exam fee online.
5. Download and save the confirmation.

You must already be registered for the Foundation course. Please confirm the eligibility rules and the fee on the official ICAI website before applying.

Tip: Don't wait for the last day. Servers get crowded and mistakes are costly, so apply in the first week.

What Is an RTP (Revision Test Paper)?

RTP stands for Revision Test Paper. It is an official study document released by ICAI before every CA Foundation examination attempt. Each Revision Test Paper has chapter-wise questions with suggested answers, which makes it one of the best free resources for final revision. It also shows you the question style ICAI prefers.

Here is how the RTP fits with your other resources:

Resource	What it does	When to use it
Study Material	Builds your concepts	Months 1-3
RTP (Revision Test Paper)	Sharpens revision with chapter-wise questions	Final 6-8 weeks
Mock Test Paper (MTP)	Simulates the real exam	Last 3-4 weeks
Past Papers	Reveals question patterns	Alongside the RTP

The 60-Day RTP Study Plan

Week 1-2: Scan and Score
Attempt one Revision Test Paper per subject without looking at the answers. Mark your weak chapters in red.

Week 3-5: Chapter Blitz
Solve chapter by chapter. Read the suggested answers after each chapter, not after the whole paper.

Week 6-7: Old RTP Marathon
Use the Sep 2025, Jan 2026, May 2026 and Sep 2026 RTPs as a question bank. Watch for concepts that keep coming back. These are your high-probability topics.

Week 8: Mock Mode
Switch to the ICAI mock tests starting 1 December. Time yourself strictly: 3 hours for Papers 1 and 2, and 2 hours for Papers 3 and 4.

Final 5 Days: Red-Pen Revision
Revise only your red-marked chapters, formulas, case laws and definitions. Sleep well.

RTP vs MTP: What Is the Difference?

The Revision Test Paper is a revision and practice tool, with chapter-wise questions and answers. A Mock Test Paper replicates the exam format for timed practice. Use the RTP first to revise, then the MTP to test yourself under exam conditions.

5 Mistakes That Cost Students Marks

1. Using the RTP before finishing the syllabus. It is a revision tool, not a first read.
2. Reading the answers without attempting the questions first.
3. Ignoring Business Laws and Business Economics because “Accounts and Maths decide everything”.
4. Skipping previous RTPs. Questions often repeat in spirit.
5. Missing the form deadline. Mark 16 November.

FAQs

What is the full form of RTP in CA Foundation?
RTP stands for Revision Test Paper.

When is the last date to fill the CA Foundation Jan 2027 form?
16 November 2026 without late fee, and 19 November 2026 with late fee.

When does the CA Foundation Jan 2027 exam start?
On 3 January 2027 with Paper 1: Accounting.

Is the RTP free to download?
Yes. ICAI publishes Revision Test Papers free on its Board of Studies portal.

When will the Jan 2027 RTP be released?
ICAI usually releases it about two months before the exam, so expect it around November 2026.

Is the RTP enough to clear CA Foundation?
No. It works best after you have completed the syllabus, and best of all when combined with mock tests and past papers. For perspective, in September 2025, 98,827 candidates appeared and 14,609 passed.

Which should I do first, RTP or MTP?
Do the RTP first for revision, then the MTP for exam simulation.

Can I download the older RTPs?
Yes. Use the table above for Sep 2026, May 2026, Jan 2026 and Sep 2025.

Wrapping Up

The students who clear Foundation are not always the ones who study the longest. They are the ones who revise with the right material at the right time. Download your Revision Test Papers, mark your dates, and start today.

All the best, future CAs.
